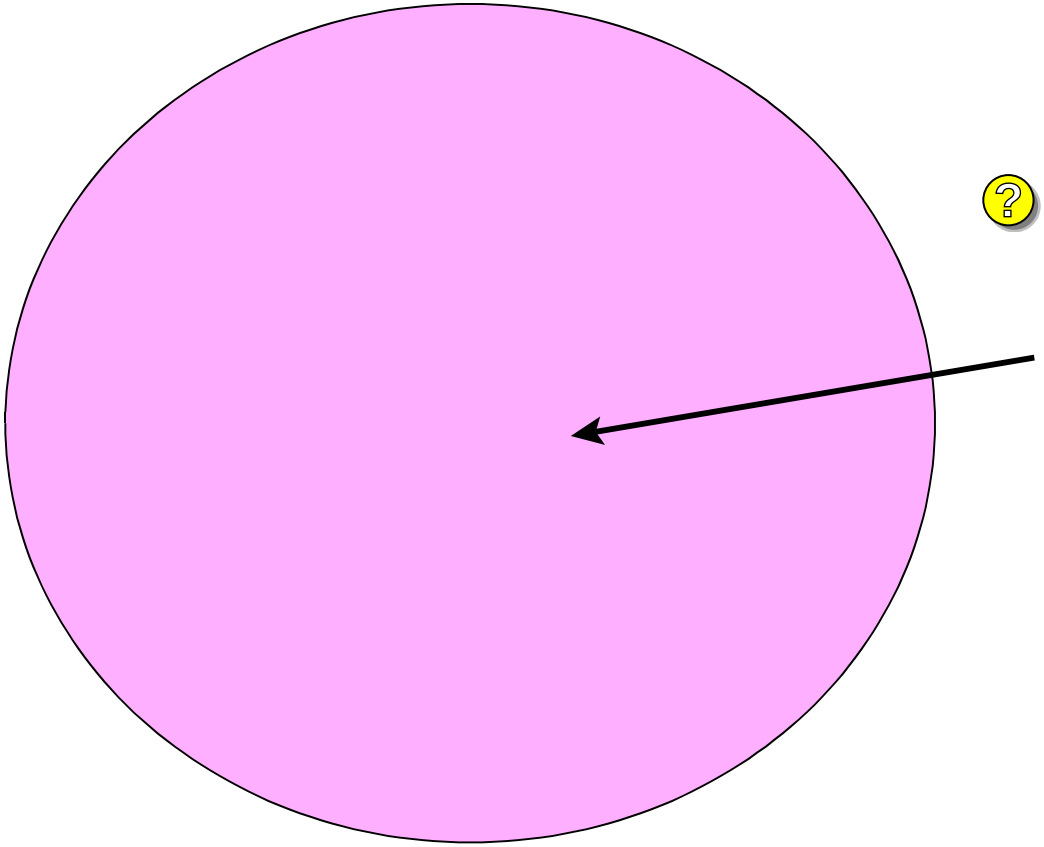
What Does This Purple Circle Mean?

This is a fixed radius. It is used by default when it is impossible to delineate a capture zone based upon the well data and local geology.



Half mile radius capture zone

The half mile radius capture zone is generated because of a number of reasons. There may have been inadequate well information, the well did not penetrate a mapped aquifer, or the aquifer penetrated had insufficient data.