

Biography: James Moore
Water Quality Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Manager, Water Quality Assessment Section, responsibilities include oversight of all technical reviews of all land application and discharge permits, 401 state water quality certifications, budget and personnel.

Prior Experience and Education

James graduated from Texas A&M University in 1974 with a BS Degree in Agricultural Engineering. He has been a licensed professional engineer in Texas for more than 30 years. He spent 2 ½ Years with U.S. Army Corps of Engineers in Fort Worth, more than 26 years with Texas State Soil and Water Conservation Board where he worked primarily on agricultural water quality programs and 2 years consulting on CAFO Permitting and Comprehensive Nutrient Management Plans. James has been on our CAFO Permitting Team since April 2006, where he has served as Work Leader and Team Leader. James is currently Manager of the Water Quality Assessment Section.

Contact Information

Telephone: (512) 239-0171

E-mail: james.moore@tceq.texas.gov