
ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Preparation of this report would have been impossible without the unselfish assistance of many people who cheerfully responded to my naive questions and requests for information. The following individuals were particularly helpful.

Dave Buzan, Jeff Kirkpatrick, George Guillen and Catherine Albrecht of the Texas Water Commission; Bruce Smith of the Texas General Land Office; Albert Green, Wen Lee, Dorinda Sullivan, Catrina Martin, Larry McKinney, Warren Pulich, and Fred LeBlanc of the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department; Frank Shipley, Russell Kiesling, and Carol Ward of the Galveston Bay National Estuary Program; Gary Powell and Rueben Solis of the Texas Water Development Board; Jerry Wermund and Tom Calnan of the University of Texas Bureau of Economic Geology; Mark Gerding of the Texas Railroad Commission; Kirk Wiles of the Texas Department of Health; Fred Werner, Allan Mueller, and B.D. King of the Ecological Services unit of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service; Ronald Bisbee and Mike Lang of the USFWS Brazoria National Wildlife Refuge; Carroll Cordes and James Johnson of the USFWS National Wetlands Research Center; Tom Minello, Roger Zimmerman, Janet Thomas, and Donald Moore of the U.S. National Marine Fisheries Service; Michael Kieslich of the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers; Scott Kiser of the National Weather Service; and D.R. Mudd of the Brazoria County Health Department.
