

Thais Perkins, TreeFolks

We are thrilled to be recognized by the state of Texas

Leslie Gilmore, Peaceable Kingdom

We were just so overwhelmingly excited

Winell Herron, H-E-B

It's an honor and a privilege for us to be recognized in this way

Chairman Bryan Shaw, TCEQ

As Texans we are proud of our natural resources and this banquet allows us, TCEQ, to recognize companies and organizations who have taken responsibility for protecting and conserving those resources

Governor Greg Abbott

All of our winners exemplify the very best in public service to our state. They are all united by one common calling—to keep Texas the greatest state in the nation

Thais Perkins

By getting the word out about what it is that we have done here, not only can we be fiscally secure into the future, but the people of Bastrop can also get some support

Jordan Crane, StandardAero

The only way to save is by creating continuous improvements within the company

Lisa Trowbridge, Valero McKee

And I'm proud to work for a company that has excellent environmental stewardship

Chris Schechter, Associated Air Center

Being environmentally-conscious is good for business, it's good for our customers, and overall it's good for efficiency

Gene Denley, GlassCraft Door Company

You've got to go green, and you've got to get on board; otherwise you're not going to sell doors, you're not going to sell anything

John Plummer, GlassCraft Door Company

We're so much cleaner now and it's just so much more friendly of a place to work

Cole Camp, Pioneer Natural Resources

I'm fourth generation oil and gas, and seeing this kind of a commitment from a company I work for – I'd be proud for my daughters to make the choice to be the fifth generation

Jaime Flores, Arroyo Colorado Watershed Partnership

It doesn't matter if you're a farmer or if you work at a wastewater treatment plant, your way of life depends on everybody working together

Winell Herron

This is a big area of focus for our organization and it's something that many individuals in our company spend a lot of time, energy and effort focused on so recognition like this reinforces that what we're doing is making a difference and it also encourages us and empowers us to do even more

Mary Jo Bogatto, Cactus Creek Ranch

This is not a job. This is my love. This is my passion
