

2012 Texas Commission on Environmental Quality Free Emissions Inventory (EI) Web Reporting Workshop

About the Workshop

The free half-day workshop will provide a brief overview of reporting requirements and cover new guidelines for 2011. The workshop will focus on the Web-based Annual Emissions Inventory Report (AEIR) submission system that is available through the State of Texas Electronic Emissions Reporting System (STEERS) Web site. The Web AEIR demonstration will include plenty of question and answer time. This workshop is geared toward:

- environmental, health, and safety managers;
- environmental consultants; and
- engineers or related professionals involved in the EI process.
