Postponement of the Public Meeting Regarding the Proposed Deletion from the State Superfund Registry of the Crim-Hammett State Superfund Site

The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) public meeting, published in the March 12, 2004, issue of the Texas Register (29 TexReg 2777), regarding the intent to take no further action and proposed deletion from the state Superfund Registry of the Crim-Hammett state Superfund site, originally scheduled for Thursday, April 22, 2004, at Henderson City Hall, Henderson, Texas, has been postponed until a later date, to be determined.

The reason for the postponement of the public meeting is to allow TCEQ to make final designation and notification of potentially responsible parties involved with the Crim-Hammett site.

Public notification of the re-scheduled public meeting will be made in the Texas Register and in the legal notice section of the Henderson Daily News.

Questions and comments regarding this public meeting cancellation and the subsequent rescheduling should be directed to Bruce McAnally, TCEQ Community Relations, at (800) 633-9363.
