

Clean Rivers Program State-Wide Stakeholder Meeting

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 11, 2006

8:30–9:25	Registration and Poster Presentations	Lobby Area
9:25–9:45	Welcome and Opening Remarks	Larry Soward, Commissioner, TCEQ Senator Kip Averitt
9:45–10:00	The Value of Stakeholder Involvement
10:00–11:30	Responding to Local Water Quality Issues	Linda Brookins – TCEQ, Moderator
	 Stakeholder Driven Nutrient Reductions in the Lake of the Pines	Walt Sears, NETMWD
	 Clear Streams Initiative	Frank Espino, TCEQ and Phil Ford, BRA
	 Supporting Stakeholder Recreational Activities in the San Antonio River Basin	Mike Gonzales, SARA
	 Helping Rapidly Developing Communities Address Water Quality Challenges Special Study of Cotton and West Fork Double Bayous	Todd Running, HGAC
	 Audience Question and Answer

LUNCH

1:00–2:30	Maximizing Program Effectiveness Through Partnerships	Laurie Curra – TCEQ, Moderator
	 Involving Stakeholders in the Clean Rivers Program	Curtis Campbell, RRA
	 Using Partner Networks to Maximize CRP Resources in the Trinity River Basin	Angela Kilpatrick, TRA
	 The Plum Creek Watershed Protection Plan: CRP partners bringing resources to community based efforts	Debbie Magin, GBRA
	 Leveraging the Clean Rivers Program for developing watershed management solutions	Gayle Haecker, BRA and John Nett, City of Killeen
	 Audience Question and Answer

BREAK

3:00–4:00	Future Focus of the Clean Rivers Program	Laurie Curra, TCEQ
4:00	Closing Remarks and Adjourn	Laurie Curra, TCEQ