Status and timeline of TCEQ proposed revisions to 30 TAC Chapter 17

Mr. Don Redmond of TCEQ's Environmental Law Division stated the rule was adopted by the commission and published in the Texas Register September 22, 2014. The rulemaking is final.

Update on TCEQ Prop 2 decisions that may have broad application for the Advisory Committee (Air Products, etc.)

Mr. Redmond responded on September 24, 2013 the commission denied the appeal and upheld the negative use determination for the Air Products application, which dealt with carbon dioxide (CO<sub>2</sub>) capture and sequestration. The negative use determination was based on the applicant not citing an environmental law, rule, or regulation met or exceeded by use of the application equipment. Mr. Adair stated that providing advice on specific applications is not within the purview of the committee. Mr. Mike Nasi referenced item B-16 on the list contained in Texas Tax Code §11.31(k), recent United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) rulemaking, and a Supreme Court ruling pertaining to regulating CO<sub>2</sub>. He asked if these actions satisfied the trigger requirement of B-16; i.e., "This item is only in effect upon the effective date of an EPA final rule regulating carbon dioxide as a pollutant." Mr. Redmond explained that applications are evaluated individually. This review includes verifying that the rule(s) cited by the applicant apply to the application equipment.

Mr. Bennett Sandlin indicated interest in pursuing this question further after the committee members and staff have time to prepare for the discussion.
