

Biography: Santiago Velez-Garcia
Water Quality Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Santiago Velez-Garcia is a Pretreatment Coordinator in the Wastewater Permitting Section of the Water Quality Division.

Prior Experience and Education

Santiago has been a pretreatment coordinator with the TCEQ since October 2012. Prior to joining the TCEQ, he completed his Master of Science in Environmental Engineering at the Politecnico di Milano in Italy, and Bachelor of Science in Environmental Engineering at the Escuela de Ingenieria de Antioquia in Colombia. He has served as an environmental investigator to the Medellin Metropolitan Area Authority in Colombia, as a hydroclimatology research assistant for the Escuela de Ingenieria de Antioquia, and as an intern at the Institute for Applied Plant Biology in Basel, Switzerland.

Contact Information

Telephone: (512) 239-0936

E-mail: santiago.velez-garica@tceq.texas.gov