

I would like to express my support for the City of Austin request for changes to the TAC rules that would allow credit for beneficial reuse against wastewater permit (TLAP) requirements for treated effluent disposal. I believe these changes will support water conservation, reduce the cost of wastewater facilities, preserve land and provide an alternative to unnecessary direct discharge into Texas creeks and rivers. I would like this rule-making effort to move forward.

Katy Phillips

Director of Public Works & Environmental Services

City of Sunset Valley, Texas