

- There is merit in allowing irrigation areas under Ch. 210 to count toward permitted TLAP areas. However, this allowance would be more beneficial if it applied to irrigation waters other than Type I. There is no connection between the Type I quality of reuse water and the ability to consider the acreage in calculated TLAP areas.

James Miertschin, PE, PhD

James Miertschin & Associates, Inc.