Lower Guadalupe River Study
Update for BBASC
June 27, 2013
Stakeholder Process

Update Meetings

- Jan. 29th in Seguin, Jan. 30th in Victoria
- Provided an updated on program and study of lower Guadalupe
- Received input from public regarding what they value about the lower Guadalupe

Study Design

Workgroup Meeting

- April 8th & 9th in Seguin
- Collaborated to develop Goal, Objectives, and Indicators
The goal for the Lower Guadalupe River is a healthy, sustainable ecosystem with native flora and fauna and natural processes that provides ecological, economic, recreational, and educational benefits.
Study Extent

- Main stem of the Guadalupe River
- Seguin to the confluence with the San Antonio River
Draft Study Design

- Developed based on Goal, Objectives, and Indicators
- Will be submitted to Workgroup and Public for comment (End of Summer)
- Will be revised and submitted for Scientific Peer review (Winter)
Ongoing Studies

Baseline Biological

Sediment Sampling

Riparian Productivity

Water Quality Modeling