

From: Martin, David
To: 185Rule
Subject: Informal Fee Program Comments
Date: Monday, September 9, 2024 11:51:48 AM

Are there provisions to accommodate if the baseline year is not a typical year? If the baseline year is impacted by a global recession, a localized problem (e.g. strike action by workforce), natural disasters, etc.? No one wants to get saddled with a baseline year that is artificially low relative to 'normal' years.

Would it be possible to use the average of the highest two years in the last 10-year period?

David Martin

Principal Environmental Engineer

702 FM 523, Freeport, TX 77541

Tel: (979) 415-1043 | Fax: (979) 415-1243

 | www.siigroup.com

SI Group

