NPDES Electronic Reporting Rule

The EPA's National Pollutant Discharge Elimination System \(NPDES\) Electronic Reporting Rule requires NPDES regulated entities to electronically submit specific permit and compliance monitoring information instead of filing paper reports.

This rule will be implemented in two phases. Phase I becomes effective on Dec. 21, 2016, and requires all NPDES regulated entities that are required to submit discharge monitoring reports (DMRs) to do so electronically.

The Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) utilizes the NetDMR system (www.texasnetdmr.org) to allow users to submit DMRs electronically. We would like to help you set up an account as soon as possible, so you have the opportunity to become familiar with the system and learn how to submit DMRs before the deadline has passed. Please see the step-by-step instructions provided below to help you create an account and request access to NetDMR.

Printed DMRs will no longer be provided beginning in January of 2017. If you are unable to utilize the NetDMR system, and would like to continue to receive printed DMRs, you can submit a Request for Electronic Reporting Waiver form (TCEQ-20754). A separate form is required for each permit or authorization requesting a waiver.

You can learn more about Phase I and II of this rule in The Advocate newsletter article, EPA's New NPDES Electronic Reporting Rule Now Final.

The TCEQ's Small Business and Local Government Assistance (SBLGA) section provides assistance to help small businesses and local governments comply with environmental regulations. If you need help to set up a NetDMR account or access the waiver, please contact us at 1-800-447-2827.
