

Viewing Water System Plan Reviews in iWDD

Previously, customers could access information concerning their plan reviews in the Water Utility Database through TCEQ's external webpage, called "iWUD." On September 1, 2014, the TCEQ's utility programs transferred to the Public Utility Commission which required TCEQ to modify iWUD. Information concerning CCN and rates information has been removed and iWUD has been restructured and renamed the Water Districts Database "WDD". The Water Districts Database is a collection of data from water districts and public drinking water systems that submit information to the TCEQ. You can use WDD to search for the names of districts, their addresses, the counties in which they are located, status of their applications, or maps of their service areas. The WDD also provides a report showing the status of TCEQ reviews of engineering plans and exception requests for public water systems.

Information regarding plan reviews can now be found by searching the new Water Districts Database. This database can be accessed at the URL below:

<http://www14.tceq.texas.gov/iwdd/index.cfm>

TCEQ is continuing to work on enhancements to the database to allow quicker access to historical information on plan reviews.
