

Biography: Bill Moody, P.E.
Air Permits Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Bill is a technical specialist for the New Source Review Mechanical/Coatings Section.

Prior Experience and Education

Bill received his Bachelor of Science degree in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Texas at Austin in 1994. He joined the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality in October of 1994. Bill was a project leader in the Technical Program Support Section of the Air Permits Division before transferring to the New Source Review Mechanical/Coatings Section in 2011. After 27 years of state service, Bill retired from the agency in February of 2021 and returned to the Mechanical/Coatings Section in September of 2021. Bill is a licensed professional engineer in the state of Texas.

Contact Information

Telephone: (512) 239-1859

E-mail: bill.moody@tceq.texas.gov