

Biography: Matthew Hager
Air Permits Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Matthew is a project manager for the Emissions Banking and Trading (EBT) Programs.

Prior Experience and Education

Matthew graduated from Trinity University in 2017 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Environmental Studies. In 2018, he moved from Dallas, Texas to Austin to begin his work for the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality. In his current position, Matthew is responsible for reviewing and processing EBT applications submitted for various programs. Matthew has over four years of experience with the EBT Programs.

Contact Information

Telephone: (512) 239-6057

E-mail: Matthew.Hager@tceq.texas.gov