

Biography: April Hoh, P.G.
Water Quality Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Geoscientist IV

Prior Experience and Education

Ms. Hoh has worked on the Water Quality Assessment team since 2004. She conducts technical reviews of geology and groundwater information for municipal and industrial Texas land application permits, sludge authorizations, and Concentrated Animal Feeding Operation (CAFO) permits. She proposes geology recommendations to be included as special provisions to the permits for the protection of groundwater in accordance with state rules, policies, and procedures. Ms. Hoh received her B.S. in Geology from Trinity University in San Antonio in 1997 and her M.S. in Geological Sciences from The University of Texas at Austin in 2000.
