

Biography: Baltazar Lucero-Ramirez, P.E.

Water Quality Division
Texas Commission on Environmental Quality

Current Position

Baltazar Lucero-Ramirez is a Professional Engineer in the state of Texas. He is a lead engineer on the Engineering & Domestic Reuse Team in the Domestic Wastewater Section. He reviews plans and specifications for collection systems and domestic wastewater treatment facilities in accordance with state rules and the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) Chapter 217 regulations. He also reviews domestic wastewater reuse Authorization applications in accordance with Chapter 210 and 321P regulations and provides technical support to the Homeland Security Program for the Water Quality Division at TCEQ.

Prior Experience and Education

Baltazar Lucero-Ramirez received a Ph.D. in Environmental and Water Resources Engineering from the University of Texas at Austin. He has worked for an environmental engineering firm and for a wastewater treatment equipment manufacturer.

Contact Information

Telephone: 512-239-4924

E-mail: Baltazar.Lucero-Ramirez@tceq.texas.gov